Interest of Colts in Good Shape.

Baymond Ryan, manager and sole dictator of the Colts of 1914, spent a strenuous day. We have this choice bit of information direct from Manager Ryan. He had no one in whom he was particularly interested sick in bed, but he was unable to answer telephone calls, and he was a busy man nevertheless and notwithstanding. Answerting telephone calls, whether one wants Turner and John Klionis in a handland powerstling match at the Academy of Music to-night, attempting to throw both middleweight twice in an hourand thirty minuten, is one of the chief exponents of physical future in the United States. HAVE TEAM READY Danville, Va., March 10.—At a meeting held by the fans of the city this afternoon, it was decided that Danville would place a team in the Class D League, being formed by Davy Crockett. Four hundred of the $1,500 necessary to place a team in the circuit was subscribed by those present and committees appointed to raise the balance. President J. O. Boatwright, of the Virginia League, was present, and stated taht in his opinion the national baseball authorities would not exempt Lynchourg from payment of the indebtedness hanging over that city, caused by the team getting out of the Virginia League in midseason, and if the new circuit is formed and secures protectio nunder the national agreement, this debt will have to be liquidated.

CHICAGO FEDERALS BEGIN TRAINING

Shreveport, La., March 10.—Led by Joe Tinker, the Chleago Federal baseball club began their spring practice here to-day. For the present the team will work two hours in the morning and two hours in the afternoon. Ideal weather prevailed.

President Gilmore to-day decided to remain here a few days longer. He said his stay here would not interfere with the progress of his fight against the old leagues.

YALE CANDIDATES CALLED BY COACH

New Haven, Conn., March 10.—Yale rowing candidates, 'varsity and freshmen, were called together by Captain Denegre to-night. Coaches Nickalls Giannini outlined the outdoor rowing plans, which will begin to-morrow. Nickalls stated he was looking for the best carsmen at present, irrespective of former records or achievements, and stated that he would be most careful in picking the crews.

MANAGE BROOKLYN HERRESHOFF TO

Charleston. S. C., March 10.—Despite his victory of yesterday, the books offered 6 to 1 against Chenault when he started again to-day in a six-furlong affair for three-year-olds and up. It was not even a race for Chenault, and he won as far as he wanted to, and aws going easy at teh finish.

Good Day surprised the talent by beating Royal Meteor in a mile and twenty-yards event, the feature race on the card. Royal Meteor was a good second, but the 114 pounds on his back was tiring him before the finish. Toy, another outsider, won the fifth race, a mile event, with Benedictine second.

American Amateur Will Take Chance With Golfers on Foreign Courses.

New York, March 10.-Fred Herreshoff, of Garden City, twice runner-up in the national amateur golf championship and formerly holder of the Metropolitan title, will sail next Thursday for England, in company with Jerome D. Travers, the holder of the national title.

Travers and Herreshoff will visit Sandwich together, and are likely to play practice matches over various British courses. After the British amateur tournament in May they will go to France for the French event, and will return to England in time for the open tournament at Prestwick. They will sail for America about July 1.
